Board of Revision

How to appeal your property value

ALAN HAROLD
STARK COUNTY AUDITOR

What is the purpose of the Board of Revision?

The Board is established to conduct a hearing in order to determine the fair market value of the real property as of the lien date for the tax year in question. They consider all available and valid evidence presented before them.

The Board DOES NOT HEAR COMPLAINTS REGARDING TAXES. The sole objective of the Board is to provide the property owner with a fair, independent appeal hearing about the property's market value.

Is there anything I could do before I file?

Please make sure to verify the accuracy of the property record www.starkcountyohio.gov/auditor. The record forms the basis for the value of the property.

If you have not already done so, the Auditor recommends that you speak with the appraisal department prior to filing the appeal. Please contact:

The Stark County Auditor's Office
330-451-7357

Who may file a complaint?

Any property owner may file a complaint. The list of others who may file can be found on the back of DTE Form I "Complaint Against the Valuation of Real Property".

How do I file a complaint?

You will need to complete DTE Form I "Complaint Against the Valuation of Real Property". The filing deadline is March 31st.

MAIL COMPLAINTS TO:

Stark County Board of Revision
Stark County Office Building
110 Central Plaza South, Suite 220
Canton OH 44702

This form may be obtained by visiting the Auditor's website, calling the office and requesting the form be mailed or visiting the office.

How do they establish "fair market value"?

Fair market value is defined as the price at which property should change hands on the open market between a willing buyer and a willing seller, neither being under any compulsion to buy or sell and both having a knowledge of all the relevant facts.

The Board hears and considers all evidence relevant to the fair market value determination. They then weigh the evidence and based on the evidence presented, establish a fair market value for the property.

What type of evidence do they consider?

Any and all evidence presented to the Board is considered though the following list is provided as a guideline:

Best Evidence:

1. A recent arms length sale of the property under appeal. (OAC 5705.3.01)
2. A recent listing / purchase agreement of the property.
3. An appraisal prepared by a qualified appraiser as of the lien date (January 1) of the tax year under appeal.

Other evidence considered by the Board that may help in the determination of fair market value:

- An appraisal prepared for reasons other than ad valorem taxation (i.e. a mortgage).
- Recent arms length sales of similar properties in the property's neighborhood. It is important to consider the lot size, age, quality, condition, and size of the improvements in determining applicable comparability.
- Similar properties recently listed for sale in the neighborhood.

- The total cost of construction for newer homes (make sure to include the cost of acquiring the land).
- Photos or other evidence of damage to the property that would not be evident from the street.
- The insured value of the property (excluding personal property and adding the value of the land)
- A market analysis of the property prepared by a real estate professional.
- If the property is commercial, industrial or other income-producing property, additional evidence may be required such as:
- Operating statements (breakdown of income and expenses.)
- EPA Reports.
- Licenses or Certification of Operation relevant to the property.

A reminder, the percentage of increase in taxes, the amount of taxes or the owner's ability to pay the taxes are not considered as evidence of value at the Board hearing.

Do I have to hire an appraiser?

Although there is no requirement to produce an appraisal at the hearing, it is highly recommended.

How do I find an appraiser?

Local banks, realtors, and real estate title companies may be able to help you locate a qualified appraiser in your area.

The Appraisal Subcommittee (ASC) website may be helpful in locating a qualified appraiser: www.asc.gov

The Board of Revision will review the qualifications of any appraiser whose opinion of value is considered as evidence.
